TOURISM HISTORY

FROM SIMPLE FISHING VILLAGE TO POPULAR HOLIDAY DESTINATION

- 1815 Inauguration of the Goldener Adler in Küssnacht am Rigi, the first hotel to be built by Lake Lucerne.
- 1837 Launch of the first paddle steamer to see service on Lake Lucerne, the Stadt Luzern.
- 1856 Inauguration of Lucerne's first railway station built of timber.
- 1871 The Vitznau-Rigi Railway, Europe's first mountain railway, commences operations.
- 1916 The collapse of tourism caused by the war led to the closure of hotels—a pattern that repeated itself in the 1930s and after.
- 1938 One of the region's first ski lifts goes into service in Oberiberg—the ensuing decades witness a skiing boom.
- 1959 Ceremonial inauguration of the Swiss Museum of Transport.
- 1998 Inauguration of the KKL Luzern with its overhanging roof.
- 2001 Following a referendum, the Entlebuch is awarded the UNESCO „Biosphere“ label. Today, the valley is a model of sustainability for other regions.
- 2015 The Gästival „guest festival“ celebrates 200 years of hospitality in the region, with floating stage in the shape of a water lily as the central attraction.

Hospitality with tradition

The upper strata of European society began acquiring a taste for the Alps in the 1760s: mountaineering and hiking soon became de rigueur in these circles. Visitors also discovered the region around Lake Lucerne, which became popular for its scenic landscapes. Lucerne city's first phase as a tourist destination began in 1835 with the opening of the Hotel Schwannen, where steamships started docking not long afterwards.

The arrival of the railways in 1852 made it possible for the European elite to converge on Lucerne. Previously medieval in character, it began its transformation into a modern city oriented towards the lake with the construction of spacious hotels and waterside promenades. Visitor numbers increased steadily from the mid-19th century. The inauguration of Europe's first mountain rack railway in 1871 saw tourists start converging on the peaks around Lake Lucerne. Visitors would often stay for weeks, and famous personalities attracted to Lucerne helped cement the city's international reputation.

The third phase of the region's tourism history coincided with the global economic boom at the turn of the century. It was destined not to last: The First World War caused tourism to collapse in 1914, and the upswing in Lucerne's fortunes at the end of hostilities came to another abrupt halt with the outbreak of the Second World War. Many hotels had to close.

A spirit of optimism emerged following the difficult war years. Lucerne positioned itself with various cultural and sporting events such as the event series now feted as the Lucerne Festival, and the World Rowing Championships on Lake Rot. 1959 witnessed the inauguration of the Swiss Museum of Transport (destined to become the country's most visited museum), with further museum openings to follow. The 1970s and 1980s saw Lucerne develop as an international holiday destination, which has resulted in today's broad mix of overseas visitors.

The inauguration of architect Jean Nouvel's KKL Luzern culture and convention centre in 1998 coincided with Lucerne increasingly positioning itself as a festival and congress city and a quality-focused tourism destination. Thanks to its privileged location on the lake in the immediate vicinity of the surrounding mountains, Lucerne was promoted as "Switzerland in a nutshell".

Some milestones in 200 years of tourism history.

2023 During exploratory work in the Lucerne lake basin, artefacts dating from around 3400 BC are found. Lucerne is thus 2400 years older than previously assumed.

180 years of the Hotel Schweizerhof

The Hotel Schweizerhof Luzern can look back on an eventful history. The grand hotel was opened in 1845 and is now managed by the fifth generation. The glory of bygone times has been preserved over the years and these glorious times are still evoked by many things to this day. With its idyllic location on Lake Lucerne, the Hotel Schweizerhof is the ideal starting point for exploring Lucerne.

The large circular painting in the Bourbaki Panorama, the centrepiece of the museum, commemorates the internment of French soldiers who found refuge in Switzerland in the winter of 1871. The cultural monument was created by the Geneva painter Edouard Castres. The medium of the panorama expands the boundaries of perception and is considered the precursor of cinema and the inspiration for numerous digital narrative forms.

AUTUMN IN LUCERNE: 5 HIGHLIGHTS

Lozärner Määs Autumn Fair

The Lozärner Määs is the city of Lucerne's traditional autumn fair. Every year in October, more than 90 wooden market huts are waiting to be discovered in Inselipark. Culinary highlights can be sampled from the Määs terrace, the snack stalls by the lake and the Määs restaurant, and the Luna Park on Bahnhofplatz and Europaplatz has something for everyone, from leisurely children's rides to adrenaline-filled thrill rides.

Wild Cuisine

Treat yourself to delicious game dishes. Many restaurants offer seasonal specialities from the forest. Roe deer or wild boar are often served with side dishes such as spaetzle, red cabbage and cranberries. Delicious options for vegetarians are available too.

A Spectacle of Colour

Rich green turns to soft yellow, which turns to fiery orange and red. The impressive interplay of colours is best seen from one of the vantage points in the city of Lucerne. Whether from the Musegg Wall, the viewpoint at Château Gütsch or Dreilinden Park, the clear autumn air makes for impressive views.

Chilbis

The Swiss “Chilbi” is also known as fairground. At a “Chilbi”, you’ll usually encounter amusement rides, game booths and food stalls. The term “Chilbi” is derived from the Old German word for “consecration”. Even though some traditional church festivals still take place in the autumn, folk festivals with no religious background are also referred to as “chilbi”. Alongside the Lozärner Määs, one of the best-known chilbis in Central Switzerland is the Chestene Chilbi in Greppen.

Woldmandli / Men from the Woods

Every year on Kilbi Saturday, figures dressed in jute bags walk from the Gurschenwald forest to Andermatt and through the village. Their faces are blackened with soot. Many of them carry cowbells; others blow goat horns. These are the “Woldmandli” (= men from the woods). The origin of this tradition is unclear. However, it is assumed that the “Woldmandli” represent the workers and day labourers who once protected the Gurschenwald forest in Andermatt. This was especially important for security against avalanches. In the past, this custom was reserved for young men, but today everyone can participate.

Cheese Festivals

Cheese has a long tradition in Switzerland. Fittingly, the largest cheese market in Central Switzerland takes place every October on Kapellplatz in Lucerne: This is the Cheese Festival and showcases the diversity in the heart of Switzerland. Discover unknown creations from small businesses, as well as the famous Sbrinz AOP and Emmentaler AOP. Stans in the canton of Nidwalden also hosts the “Genussmarkt” in October, selling Alp cheese, home-made farm products, honey and wine from local farms.

Transhumance

When food on the pastures becomes scarce in autumn, transhumance takes place: The traditional return of livestock from the mountain pastures to the valley. The farmers return to their home villages with their decorated animals.

Transhumance always attracts many spectators. For example, the Entlebuch Transhumance attracts more than 10,000 visitors every year.

Melchsee-Frutt

A Selection of Winter Experiences

If you fancy some fresh mountain air and crunching snow under your feet, the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region is just the place for you. From relaxed snowshoe tours, cross-country ski trails with far-reaching views and fast-paced sledge runs to ski runs for all levels, the region has everything to offer.

Engelberg

Featuring the “Big 5”, Engelberg is one of the top freeride destinations in the Alps. All five runs can be reached without having to unbuckle your skis. At the “SnowXpark”, you can do fast-paced laps on electric snowmobiles.

Melchsee-Frutt

Melchsee-Frutt offers classic snow sports, as well as a freestyle park with up to 40 obstacles for creative fun. For a unique experience, visit the Schratthöhle, which can also be explored in winter in the company of a cave guide. You can also enjoy a few relaxing hours ice fishing on the plateau.

Mount Stoos

Skiing, snowboarding, snowshoeing, sledging or cross-country skiing – snow enthusiasts are in good hands on Mount Stoos. For adrenaline lovers, Mount Stoss also offers an airboard run with panoramic views.

Andermatt

In Central Switzerland’s largest continuous snow sports area, visitors can expect a wide range of sports and leisure activities in winter. The ice rink offers varied winter fun, with pirouette training, Bavarian curling or an ice hockey match.

Sörenberg

With its many blue slopes, the Sörenberg ski resort is particularly suitable for families. Experienced skiers will also get their money’s worth on one of Europe’s six steepest runs.

Klewenalp

In winter, the Klewenalp turns into a sunny high plateau for winter sports enthusiasts. Away from the slopes, you’ll find snowshoe trails and winter hiking trails. Thanks to convenient arrival by boat and gondola, the winter experience begins on the journey there.

Mount Pilatus

Tobogganing on Lucerne’s local mountain is fun for the whole family. The various downhill slopes made of natural snow promise adventure. Snow sports equipment can be hired at the valley station.

Mount Rigi

The small, family-friendly ski resort on Mount Rigi is never in a hurry. And the views of the surrounding mountains and Lake Lucerne are all the more beautiful for it. Those with a valid ticket for the cogwheel or aerial cableway can use the ski lifts free of charge.

CHRISTMAS MAGIC IN LUCERNE

Winter Customs

Between festively decorated alleys and snow-covered squares, the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region is home to many winter customs steeped in history.

Carolling

Every weekend before Christmas, the carol singers parade through Lucerne's Old Town with their lights and songs. The custom dates back to the 10th century. At that time, the Latin texts of the Church, which were difficult to understand, were presented in song and theatre. Even today, a Christmas play is performed at three squares in the old town, while the specially formed choir accompanies the performance with interpretations of traditional Christmas carols. In Lucerne, the tradition has been kept alive by the Luzerner Spieleuten since 1938.

spieleute.ch

Iffelen

Iffelen are head lanterns in the shape of an oversized, illuminated bishop's cap. The lanterns are made of punched cardboard and coloured tissue paper. They can be up to 2 metres high. Traditionally, St. Nicholas adorns the front of each lantern, while on the back, there is a cross and the lettering IHS to represent Jesus. Artistic patterns complete the picture.

Iffelen are worn on parades in honour of St. Nicholas, otherwise known as "Samichlaus" or Santa Claus. One of the most famous parades of this kind is the Küssnacht Nicholas Chase.

Nicholas Chase

The Küssnacht Nicholas Chase is a winter custom that takes place in early December. It's the highlight of Advent in Küssnacht am Rigi. The impressive procession attracts more than 30,000 visitors every year. At 8.15 p.m., the bang of a firecracker signals the start of the procession. Santa Claus walks through the village with his entourage by torchlight, accompanied by whip crackers, Iffelen caps and cow bell ringers. The procession ends with horns that echo through the night with their eerie call.

klausjagen.ch

Gingerbread

Lucerne gingerbread is a local speciality from Central Switzerland. It's a flat, round, dark gingerbread biscuit and differs from all other gingerbread in one specific ingredient: Rather than being made with honey, Lucerne gingerbread is made with pear syrup. Cream is also used instead of milk. Other main ingredients include white flour, sugar and gingerbread spice, though there's no standard recipe.

Samichlaus

In contrast to many countries, in Switzerland, Santa Claus is known as "Samichlaus". On 6 December, he and his helper, the "Schmutzli", visit families in their homes and hand out presents to well-behaved children if they recite a verse or sing a song for them.

TRAVEL ITINERARY

THIS IS WHAT AN INDIVIDUAL MEDIA TRIP COULD LOOK LIKE

Day 1

Make your own way to Lucerne on public transport. It is a short walk from the railway station to Schwanenplatz, where you check in to the history-steeped Hotel Schweizerhof. Famous personalities like Mark Twain and Leo Tolstoy have stayed in the Belle Époque structure, which is more than 150 years old. Over lunch at the restaurant Burgerstube, you will meet your contact person from Lucerne Tourism.

Take this opportunity to ask any questions you may have about the itinerary or your research in the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region. In the afternoon, explore Lucerne at your own pace as you continue with your research. Round off the day with an evening meal in the Restaurant Scala, high above the rooftops of Lucerne.

Day 2

After a good night's sleep, you'll start the day early this morning: You'll take the boat to Vitznau and from Vitznau, Europe's first cogwheel railway will transport you to the summit of Rigi Kulm. High above the clouds, you can enjoy a magnificent view. In good weather, you'll go on a short snowshoe tour, continuing to the Rigi Kaltbad Mineral Baths and Spa for a few relaxing hours. Refreshed, you'll make your way back to Lucerne. There you can immerse yourself in the Christmas bustle and skate against a breathtaking backdrop, stroll through one of the Christmas markets or discover Lucerne at Christmas on the heated Christmas City Train in comfort. In the evening, a cheese fondue awaits at the Eiszauber Chalet.

Day 3

More of Lucerne's cultural attractions are on the agenda on day three of your research trip. For example, you could visit the KKL Luzern Culture and Convention Centre, which is world-renowned for its acoustics and striking architecture. Alternatively, head for the Swiss Museum of Transport, the country's most popular museum, to find out what characterises public transport in Switzerland.

To round things off, you will visit Max Chocolatier, where you will have the opportunity to taste unique chocolate creations or try your hand at a workshop. In the afternoon, it's time to say goodbye with a heavy heart – but we are already looking ahead to your next visit to the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region.

RECORD-BREAKING REGION

The steepest

Funicular railway | 1

The Stoosbahn railway opened in 2017 as the steepest funicular in the world – a technical and engineering marvel that turns the journey between Schlattli near Schwyz to the car-free mountain village of Stoos into an experience not to be missed. The Stoosbahn boasts a maximum gradient of 47 degrees (110 percent) and negotiates 744 metres of elevation.

The first

Mountain railway in Europe | 3

Travelling between Vitznau and Rigi Staffelhöhe, the Vitznau-Rigi Railway entered service in 1871 as Europe's first mountain railway. Its route was extended up to Rigi Kulm two years later. The railways on the Rigi continue to be a reliable mode of transport up the "Queen of the Mountains"; the trip takes around 30 minutes. Dating from founding years, the legendary engine no. 7 has been preserved along with other artefacts.

Media and research trips

Are you planning to produce an article or a feature about the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region? We can assist you with your researches as well as story and fact finding. We work with our destination partners to organise tailor-made media visits.

Please contact us at least four weeks before your arrival, so that we can provide you with all the assistance you need. How we can assist you:

- Travel in the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region
- Accommodation and meals
- A travel itinerary tailored to your requirements (excursions, visits, interviews, content, stories etc.)

Are you unable to explore the Lucerne-Lake Lucerne region in person? No problem. We welcome any interest in our destination and are happy to help you with your home-based research.

FILM- & TV-PRODUCTIONS IN LUCERNE

The Lucerne-Lake Lucerne Region provides wonderful locations for TV and film productions. Lucerne Tourism and Film Commission Lucerne & Central Switzerland provide their expert, straightforward assistance in the realisation of projects.

We provide assistance in the realisation of projects, including supervising productions in the region, scouting production locations, coordinating shooting permits and other forms of facilitation.

Competencies and Support

The media department of Lucerne Tourism is happy to help with film and video productions in a touristic context. For large-scale film and TV productions (e.g. crime thriller or documentary) as well as commercial assignments of all kinds, the Film Commission Lucerne & Central Switzerland offers professional support and coordination.

Filming in the city of Lucerne

Being one of the most beautiful cities in Switzerland, Lucerne is perfectly suited as a scenery for film and video productions of all kinds. For a successful filming process, a few important points must be observed:

Generally, permission must be obtained from the City of Lucerne for filming in public spaces. Filming on private property is only permitted with the consent of the owner. Filming on bridges is not permitted for safety reasons.

In the city of Lucerne and the Lucerne lake basin, the use of a drone is not possible without a permit (see below). There is a zone with restricted air traffic above Lake Lucerne. Permits must be obtained by the drone pilot himself from the respective authority.

Operation of drones

Since 1 January 2023, the provisions of the EU drone regulation have applied in Switzerland, which distinguishes between the three categories 'open', 'special' and 'subject to authorisation'.

The drone guide from the Federal Office of Civil Aviation FOCA provides an overview of the applicable rules and provides information on the cases in which a drone flight requires authorisation.

In the city of Lucerne and over bodies of water in the canton of Lucerne, it is not possible to use a drone without authorisation. It is important to allow sufficient time to obtain authorisation and to submit applications as early as possible.
